Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(f) he did not himself invent the subject matter sought to be patented.

Claims 1-7,9-17,19 and 21-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(f) because the applicant did not invent the claimed subject matter.

The subject matter claimed in these claims was previously disclosed by a different inventive entity, casting doubt as to who the actual inventor of the claimed subject matter is.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 10-24-2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

To overcome a 102 (f) rejection, a 1.131 or a 1.132 affidavit is required. See M.P.E.P 2137. Applicant addressed why a 1.131 is not required or appropriate. However, applicant did not address why a 1.132 was not appropriate. All applicant stated was that the previous declaration assumes the inventive entity listed to be the actual inventors. While this may be true, in this instance the existence of the cited patent casts doubt as to who actually invented the claimed subject matter. Two different inventive entities are now proclaiming to be the inventors of this subject matter. One of two things is true... either the inventive entity of the cited patent is incorrect and the present inventors should have been added as inventors to that patent; or two of the three inventors in this application are not really the inventors of the claimed subject matter. Affidavits are necessary to clear up who is/are the actual inventors of the presently claimed subject matter.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
